A total of 120 cargo transports carried 164.7 tone of cargo and 542 passengers. The Fifth Air Force flew 475 sorties during the twenty-four hour period, most of them in close support of ground troops. Heavy fighter support was given to South Korean troops along the front northeast of Waegwan where a Red push was under way. In all 108 sorties were flown in that area. Six interceptor missions were flown in the area of Japan's Kyushu Island against unidentified aircraft. One proved to be friendly. The Air Force spokesman said then a was no report on identity of the other planes.	True		NaT	C1B 260013
